BUSINESS MAIL AT THE SPEED OF BUSINESS

With DHL Global Mail, a part of Deutsche Post DHL, you have a respected partner with a proven track record in swift delivery. But our portfolio goes far beyond getting your business correspondence to its destination on time: we offer a full range of services to streamline the entire process, from address management to sorting and franking and pickup of items at your offices. And as part of our commitment to sustainable operations, we offer the CO₂-neutral shipment option GOGREEN. For each piece of GOGREEN mail, Deutsche Post DHL invests in internationally recognized climate protection programs to offset the resulting emissions.

From consulting to complete handling, we are at your side every step of the way:

- Extensive business mail support
- Address management
- Database management
- Sorting and franking
- Lettershop services
- Pickup at your offices
- PC-based dispatch preparation
- End-to-end handling

Quality indicators bear witness to our success in the German market
